A neighbor heard the Indians comings, and hiding near the trail near the trail, recognized the little girl, but could not rescue her. Pursuit followed but resulted in nothing. Ten years after the whites fought a tribe at Shamakin, and captured from them a young white woman and her half breed boy, she was brought to her parents and subsequently married one of the Loman Boys. Her half-breed boy died in 1826, at Adam Rader's house on the Overholtzer farm, near where his mother was made captive. She died at ninety years of age on her husband's farm sold to James Wilson and by him to the Bollingers. Two of her daughters married into the Zimmerman family, one married John Clark, who owned McDevitt's Mill and a fourth married John Light, from Falling Waters, Va.

CHAPTER V. THE CLAIM OF CONNECTICUT.

NAMES OF ORIGINAL SETTLERS.

It may be interesting to know the names of the original settlers of Muncy township. Several of them were conspicuous participants in the stirring times of that period, and their names frequently occur in history, but the majority at this lapse of time are unknown. The following list embraces the names of all who were bona fide settlers in 1774, when it was returned by the assessor to the commissioners at Sunbury:

John Alward, (servant, one negro,) David Austin, John Archer, John Andrews, David Berry, Daniel Brown, David Benjamin, Jonathan Benjamin, John Brady, Matthew Blukeny, (carpenter,) Benjamin Burts, Nathaniel Barber, Joseph Bonser, Thomas Bonner, John Coats, Nicholas Cline, Albert Covenhoven, Joseph Craft, John Covenhoven, Joseph Carpenter, John Carpenter,...

CHAPTER XV. THE NINETEENTH CENTURY BEGINS.

Lower Bald Eagle. – Matthew Allison, farmer; John Armstrong, farmer; Charles Bennett, farmer; John Beans, farmer; Samuel Bodle, weaver; James Brown, farmer; John Brownlee, farmer; Widow Barnhill, farmer; James Boyd, farmer; John Bott, farmer; Robert Black, farmer; Francis Boyce, blacksmith; Robert Boale, farmer; James Burney, farmer; James Burns, farmer; James Carskaddon, farmer; James Curry, farmer; Griffith Carr, farmer; Samuel Carpenter; ...

County Auditors. – By act of 1791 the court was authorized to appoint auditors annually. As near as can be ascertained from the early records the following persons served in this capacity:

For 1798, 1803-04, Samuel E. Grier and Matthew Wilson; 1806-08, Thomas Caldwell, Thomas Martin, and Jacob Shoemaker. The office was made elective by the act of March 6, 1809, in which, however, the court was empowered to fill any vacancies that might occur. As far as can be ascertained the following, persons served after this law took effect: 1809, Thomas Martin, William Wilson; 1810, Samuel E. Grier, Jeremiah Tallman, Samuel Carpenter; 1811, Samuel E. Grier, Robert Foresman; 1812-13, James McMicken, William Williams, Samuel Carpenter.

EARLY MANUFACTURE OF SALT.

The early settlers experienced much trouble in getting salt, and as it commanded a high price during the two first decades of the century, efforts were made to manufacture it wherever salt wells could be sunk. The locations of "salt licks" were carefully noted, as they were frequently by the deer and elk. Reference has been made to the existence of a primitive salt manufactory on Salt run, in the review of Gamble township; and the Moravians spoke of a "salt lick" near Roaring Branch, where experiments were afterwards made to manufacture salt. A well was sunk to a considerable depth and salt water discovered, but it does not appear that any great quantity was ever manufactured. A reservation of this salt district was made by Gideon Freeborn, in transferring a large body of land in 1829. ? See Deed Book W, page 380.

As early as 1809 the Lycoming Salt Manufacturing Company was organized at or near Muncy. It appears from old receipts that Joseph Whitacre was president and Samuel Carpenter treasurer. One of the certificates of stock is herewith given:

We do hereby certify that William McCarty is entitled to one share or fiftieth part of the profits and losses arising from the proceeds of the Lycoming Salt manufacturing Company, provided he continues to comply with the articles of the said association. Witness our hands this 5th day of April, A. D. 1809. JOSEPH WHITACRE, President. SAMUEL CARPENTER, Treasurer. That he paid an installment on his stock is shown by this receipt:

Received the 20th of 5th month, 1809, of William McCarty, the sum of $5, it being the first installment on one share held by him in the Lycoming Salt Manufacturing Company. Received by me,

SAMUEL CARPENTER, Treas. for said Company.

From the best information it appears that the salt manufactory was located at what is now Driftwood, at the mouth of Bennett's branch, on the Sinnemahoning, and that it was carried on quite extensively. There are persons yet living who remember seeing the evaporating pans used in making salt, and the location of the furnaces is still pointed out. The track of the Philadelphia and Erie railroad now passes over the spot where the salt well was located, nearly opposite the mouth of the creek.

BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCHES.

BOROUGH OF JERSEY SHORE, AND PORTER, WATSON,
MIFFLIN (INCLUDING SALLADASBURG), AND PIATT
TOWNSHIPS.

Newton Carpenter who married a Melinda Gulden (daughter of J. L. GULDIN, miller ...).

JAMES CARPENTER was one of the pioneers of Lycoming county. He was a son of Thomas Carpenter, a native of Nottingham, England, who came to America during the Revolution and served in that war for Independence. Soon after the close of that struggle for liberty, James Carpenter came to the West Branch valley and took up 700 acres of land on what is now the line of Anthony and Woodward townships, Lycoming county, upon which he spent the balance of his life. He never obtained his patent for this land, but it was afterwards obtained by his grandsons, Jesse B. and David J. Carpenter. His children were: William, and Samuel, both of whom removed to Indiana; John; James; Polly, who married John Cohick; and Mary, who married George Bennett, all of whom are dead.

JOHN CARPENTER, third son of James Carpenter, was born on the homestead farm .in this county in 1788. He grow to manhood and cleared up a portion of the land upon which he afterward resided. He married Mary, daughter of John and Elizabeth Campbell, of Northumberland county, Pennsylvania, March 4, 1806. She died August 6, 1847; he Survived her until 1865. Their family consisted of the following children: Elizabeth, deceased wife of Andrew Marshall; David, of Jersey Shore, who was twice married, first to Mary Ware, and afterwards to Rachael Mitcheltree; Priscilla, deceased wife of John Pepperman, deceased; Jesse B.; Nancy, who died in infancy; Susan A., deceased wife of Levi Tate, deceased; Sophia, wife of Jonas Newcome; Mary A., deceased wife of J. L. Rank; John J., of Iowa, who married Mary Marshall; William, who died in infancy, and Rebecca, deceased. In early life Mr. Carpenter was a Whig, and subsequently a Republican.

JESSE B. CARPENTER, second son of John and Mary Carpenter, was born October 10, 1813, in Woodward township, Lycoming county. He was reared upon the old homestead, and received such an education as the common schools of that period afforded. After he grew to manhood he and his brother secured the patent for the tract entered by his grandfather, a portion of which is still owned by members of the family. In 1866 he purchased his present home of 125 acres in Piatt township, where he has since resided. Mr. Carpenter was married May 20, 1847, to Phebe Ann, daughter of Joseph and Hannah Carpenter of Eldred township. Four children are the fruits of this union: Joseph R.; William B., deceased; John W., and Asher M. Mr. Carpenter is one of the leading farmers of his township, and is a trustee and steward of the Methodist Episcopal church of his neighborhood. Throughout his life-long residence in Lycoming county he has been recognized as an industrious and honorable citizen, a man whose character is above reproach, and whose success has been attained by a conscientious performance of duty. He is a kind and charitable neighbor, and ever ready to help the needy and afflicted. Politically, he has always been a stanch Democrat, and is also a firm advocate of the temperance cause. Both he and wife are now spending their declining years in the mutual love and respect of home and family, and in the enjoyment of the comforts which their industrious and economical habits have won.

DESCENDANT PROJECT: "Jesse Carpenter"

carpentersoftware@mac.com

Carpenter Family Project

The Carpenter Family Project (CFP) is the genealogical compilation. It is more than a mere list of individuals sequentially cataloged in numerical order but a record on the history of the family.

The Ancestor

The ancestor, James Carpenter, was the British soldier who came from England during the American Revolutionary War in the Army of Cornwallis, and soon after the end of the war, he settled north of the West Branch of the Susquehanna River of Pennsylvania. The Meginness citations and the Y-DNA testing on living descendants shows that James Carpenter was the direct ancestor of the Carpenter Family.^{1,2}

The Author

Jesse Carpenter is the author of the Project. The time spent on the project has been long, over a decade, his manuscript constantly recapitulating along with his thoughts, his frustrations, constantly editing its content and reexamining its relevancy. He lives with a fixed income , yet the project is important enough to use what little he has to include it on the Carpenter Software website at: carpentersoftware.com.

Roger Carpenter once said, I need to get away from working with dead people. Roger by the way was the family genealogist who is now retired from genealogy. Like

Roger the author too after so many years has a need to take a break.

COMMENT AND CONCERN:

We have a descendant named Joseph who cites his great grandfather as William Carpenter a Loyalist who fought with Cornwallis. This is a stark contrast to this James Carpenter who came to America during the Revolution and served in that war for Independence. Either the genealogy is wrong or the William cited is wrong in the bio. Loyalist or Patriot? DO NOT CONFUSE or make these two people the same person.

BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCHES.

CITY OF WILLIAMSPORT AND BOROUGH OF SOUTH WILLIAMSPORT.

JOSEPH R. CARPENTER, of the firm of Carpenter Brothers Manufacturers of emery and corundum wheels, was born in Anthony township, Lycoming county, Pennsylvania, April 4, 1849. He is a son of Jesse B. and Phoebe (Carpenter) Carpenter of Piatt township, Lycoming county, and grandson of John Carpenter, a native of this county, and great-grandson of William Carpenter, who came from England during the Revolutionary war as a soldier in the army of Cornwallis, and subsequently settled in Lycoming county. The subject of this sketch was educated in the schools ,of Anthony township, where his father and grandfather lived, and subsequently took a course at the Montoursville Normal School. He followed agriculture until 1884, .and then engaged in the manufacture of emery wheels at Linden, under the firm name of Stone & Carpenter. At the end of two years Mr. Stone retired, and the present firm of Carpenter Brothers was organized. They moved their plant to Williamsport in 1891, and it is the only firm of the kind in this part of the State. Mr. ,Carpenter was married in 1873 to Emma E., daughter of John McLaughlin of Piatt township, and has three children: Jessie V.; Mack B., and J. Craig. He is a Democrat, and is a member of the Methodist Episcopal church.

Mary McNeil b. 1756 d. 1815 Anthony, Lycoming, PA - listed as spouse.

No evidence has been found linking her to James Carpenter. No marriage record or grave record found.

Indeed no evidence that she has existed has been found other than "Ancestry Trees."

The addition of Mary McNeil-178739 to James Carpenter-124327 was due to Ancestry Family trees pending any evidence to collaborate such. No far nothing has been found to prove her as the spouse. At some given point, we will need to modify or remove her data.

Dear John

I do have evidence that at least one child of James Carpenter-124327 indicated by the biographies of the Bennett Family of Mary Carpenter-596315 (unknown ID number!), daughter of James Carpenter....

First about her age when she passed away:

Under the section Died, in the Gazette & Bulletin (Williamsport, Pa) dated on 23 March 1831 on page 3.

On Thursday last, Mrs. Mary Bennett, consort of George Bennett, Esq. of Nippenose township, in the 48th year of her age.

Mary was born about 1783. Consort here means spouse. The term Esquire (Esq) as used in American law was applied to justices of the peace and other inferior judicial officers (Black's Law Dict revised 4th Ed). You may not remember, but I wrote an article about her...

It is unclear where Mary Carpenter-596315 was born...but it was about the time the war was officially ended... Think about this...

Evidence that conveys her parents were from...

Genealogical and Personal History of Lycoming County, Pennsylvania under the Editorial Supervision of Emerson Collins, of Williamsport, Pennsylvania, and John W. Jordan, LL.D. of the Historical Society of Pennsylvania. Illustrated volume II. New York - Chicago, The Lewis Publishing Co. 1906.

"Mary Carpenter, a native of Pennsylvania, of English parentage..." (Collins & Jordan 1906)

I hope this will suffice to the contrary of the 1870 US Census you had mentioned earlier.

I briefly looked over the GEDCOM you had sent me... Thanks by the way.

Please tell me there is evidence (sources) for the Wife of James Carpenter-124327, Mary McNeil. AND his siblings...

In the Meginness Text, the name William Carpenter for James Carpenter-124327 is discussed under the biographies of the sons of Jesse Bowman Carpenter... which by the way I fully explained in the James Carpenter article still posted at the website...

Please keep in touch... Again thank you for your help.

CHAPTER V.

The second public road of which we have any account, was from John Scudder's place, on the east bank of the river, to the crossing of Muncy creek by the Wyalusing path. This order was made by the court in August, 1773, and Samuel Carpenter, Robert Robb, John Scudder, John Micheltree, John Alward, and James Robb were designated as viewers. As the distance was not very great, it is supposed the road was promptly laid out and built.

Samuel Carpenter Compact Disc #55 Pin #596314

While there was a Samuel Carpenter in the family of James (the father), his birth year is far from determined. I have given a children birth range from the mid 1780s to the mid 1790s based on a birth of James circa 1760 with a guesstimate of plus or minus about 7 years. Samuel Carpenter-124362 in the CE being listed last in the record is given about 1793. If reversed then born about 1784.

Drop James birth to about 1750 then the children range is between about 1775 to 1785 plus or minus a bit.

Is there a possible Samuel Carpenter in the 1850 US Census who could be this Samuel? Based on birth year range of 1775 to 1785. Yes there is one possible.

BIRTH:

1800 - mix - 1 b. bef 1755, 1 b. 1755/1774, 1 b. 1774/1784, 1 born 1784/1790, 3 b. 1790/1800

----- This is not this Samuel as head of house.

1810 b. abt 1785/1794

1820 b. abt 1776/1794

1830 b. abt 1771/1780 <---- outrider

1840 b. abt 1791/1800

1850 b. abt 1790 PA - wife Rachel

1860 b. abt 1790 PA - wife Rachel
1870 b. abt 1785 PA - wife Rachel <---- outrider
The seeming consensus, so to speak, is about 1790ish for birth.

CENSUS: 1800 US Census -- father listing? Likely some one else!

Reportedly buried next to his wife. But a search in 2023 found no grave marker. Since then there is a picture found that was taken in 2008 showing the marker was laying on the ground. It is now assumed the fallen marker is now covered over. I am trying to get permission to use this 2008 image.

James married Sarah Welsh and they had children: Andrew, William, James, Henry & Sarah Jane. He reportedly also married a Catherine Emery.

Caleb Winfield Peters

GRAVE: image plus family photo

Pvt Caleb Winfield Peters

Birth: 3 Mar 1844

Death: 21 Oct 1900 (aged 56)

Burial: Thrailkill Cemetery, Swayzee, Grant County, Indiana, USA

Plot: Sec B

Memorial #: 44094170

Bio: Caleb Winfield Peters was born March 3, 1844, died Oct 21,

1900. Aged 56 years, 4 months and 18 days. During his boyhood days, he was early put to clearing the heavy forests that covered the land entered by his father by the government, always being a dutiful son to his parents, and early learning that patriotism was the sterling quality of any man, when his country was plunged into war he thought duty invited him to the front, so in the summer of 1862 amid the cheers of patriotism of men and the tears of mother and sisters he obeyed the bugle call and tramped to the front encouraged by martial music and the sight of the old flag so dear to every old patriot. When done fighting the battle of his country he came home and began anew the battles of life so recently ended. He was married to Minerva Carpenter April 6, 1871. To that union were born two boys and two girls, one of the girls having passed on before at the age of about five years, leaving the present family consisting of a married daughter Ella living in Pittsburg, Pa., and Frank and Ellsworth and the wife and mother of Swayzee. To his family he was always a ray of light, and to his neighbors and friends was always ready to enjoy the social side of any question. When the end was evident he realized duty again and was baptized and became a member of the Methodist church and died in the triumph of a living faith in Christ Jesus. The funeral services were held yesterday, at the Christian Church, Rev. Louis Reeves, officiating. The remains were laid to rest in the IOOF cemetery

GRAVE: image

Peter Hoffman

Birth: 23 Apr 1835 Germany

Death: 21 May 1914 (aged 79) Windfall, Tipton County, Indiana, USA

Burial: Brookside Cemetery, Windfall, Tipton County, Indiana, USA

Memorial #: 74287316

Bio: Peter Hoffman, age 79 years and 28 days, died at his home, in Windfall, Thursday evening, at 10:00 o'clock, of Blight's disease and other complications, after an illness of about one month. Peter Hoffman was the oldest German citizen of Windfall, he being the only child of George and Elizabeth Hoffman, of Prussia. Peter was born in Lotzran, Prussia, April 23, 1835. His mother died three days after his birth and his father died four years later of cholera. Peter was reared by relatives and friends in the vicinity, where he was born and at the age of twenty years, he was compelled to serve in the standing army for a term of three years. After serving about two years, he received a fall, from which he suffered a broken leg and then he was discharged from the 28th Prussian regiment. After his recovery, he was examined by the army surgeons with a view of compelling him to serve the third year, but he had had enough of army life and he sold two acres of ground that he possessed and then the lad left Prussia. He came to America after being on the ocean for forty-five days, he landed in New York, and soon after; he went to Saint Karns, Canada, where he stayed for two years. Then he went to Chicago and wen to a boarding house, where he slept in the same room with four other boarders. One day the four boarders died with the cholera, then Peter took sudden flight and went to St. Louis. He then drifted to New Orleans and then came to Indiana and settled at Columbus. Here he became acquainted with Miss Elizabeth Krieg, in the year of 1855, to whom, he was united in marriage. He then learned the shoe cobbling business, a trade he followed during the remainder of his life. He settled in Windfall in 1386, where he has ever since resided. He was the father of twelve children by his first marriage, eight of whom, survive, namely, Mrs. Mollie Solomon, of Elwood; Mrs, Pearl Kingsbury and Mrs. Laura Gibson, of Anderson; Adam Hoffman, of Decatur; Charles Hoffman, of St. Louis; Mrs. William Bakerfield, of California; Frank and Amos Hoffman, of Anderson. His first wife died in 1901 and in 1909, he was married to Mrs. Harriett Leweller, of Curtisville, who died in 1911 and in 1912, he was again united in marriage, this time to Mrs. Mary England.

George Carpenter

Birth: 1861

Sacramento

Sacramento County

California, USA

Death: Jun. 4, 1892

Emigrant Gap

Placer County

California, USA

From California. Died at the age of 30 years, 10 months, 4 days, of a gunshot wound.

San Francisco Call, Volume 72, Number 6, 6 June 1892:

"MURDER MOST FOUL. A Man Shot Down at Emigrant Gap for Not Paying His Debts.

Sacramento, June 5.— A special to the Record-Union from Emigrant Gap gives the details of the murder of George Carpenter at that place Saturday. From all that can be learned it was a most cold-blooded murder, and the supposed murderer, Thomas Anderson, has fled.

Several months ago while the two were in San Francisco Carpenter borrowed $60 from Anderson, and since then the latter has frequently dunned him for it, but Carpenter always declared that he was hard up. The day before the killing Anderson made another demand for the money, but met with no better success than before. He became quite angry and in the presence of several people around town threatened Carpenter. To a man named Chian he said that he would have that money or stretch hemp for it.

On Saturday morning Carpenter opened his saloon at 6 o'clock, and in half an hour the neighbors heard a shot. Carpenter was found dead in the rear room of the saloon. The murderer had fired a heavy charge of buckshot through the glass door of the saloon and the whole had entered Carpenter's left side, penetrating the heart and lung, breaking several ribs and tearing away the muscles of the left arm.

Sheriff Conroy of Placer and a posse are scouring the country for Anderson, and they believe they will catch him before long. The murdered man was born in Sacramento and is well known here. His father is a well-to-do cattleman and a farmer of Folsom. His mother, sister and brother are also at the latter place. He was 30 years of age.

The inquest was held and the jury found that he came to his death at the hands of some one unknown to the jury."

COMMENT:

This is NOT David L. Carpenter (1807-1993) who was buried in Fernwood Cemetery, Yeadon, Delaware, PA.

-----

NOTE: Per Jesse Carpenter

The focus of this article (See: Catherine Part 1) is centered around the family of David Carpenter. The Carpenter lineage from James Carpenter was his son John and then his grandson David. David was born on 8 April 1809 approximately along the line joining Anthony and Woodward Townships of Lycoming County, Pennsylvania. He was the son of John Carpenter and Mary Campbell. He married Mare Ware (alternatespellings Wehr, Weir, ...) on 2 August 1832 in Jersey Shore, Lycoming, Pennsylvania. , , She died 3 4 5 6before 1836. David and Mary had a single child, a son, Jesse J. Carpenter who was born 19 May 1833. In 7

11 February 1836, David married Racheal Mitcheltree. She died 29 August 1880

(See numbered sources for Part 1 in her notes.)

(From Part 2)

The household of David Carpenter is listed in the Potter Township Lycoming County

Pennsylvania Census dated 8 August 1850. Listed was David age 43 and his wife Rachael age 41.

The children listed were Catherine E. age 16, Priscilla J. age 14, John J. age 12, Joseph L. age 10,

Levi T. age 8 and finally Elsie A. age 5. Catherine was listed as the oldest child, it has beenassumed she was the child of David and Rachael. The number of children contradicts the 1883record that David and Rachael only had five children. 1

David was born 8 April 1809 somewhere near the borderline between Anthony and WoodwardTownships in Lycoming County Pennsylvania. In 1850 living in Potter Township, he was servingas the Constable, a peace officer of Potter Township.

Catherine was visiting the residence of David and Rachael Carpenter in 1850 most likely becauseher husband in all seriousness was searching for assistance for his pregnant wife hence whyCatherine came in contact with Constable Carpenter. A child, a wife and maybe a daughter, Catherine was pregnant. Catherine Ellen Mitcheltree was her full name who had the same maiden name as Rachael although for Rachael, it might be from a previous marriage. She may be related to the family but researching women during this period uncovered very little as previously mentioned in Part 1.

Was Catherine there because she needed support from her family or was it because she needed experienced women, a safe environment, to help deliver her unborn child.

(See numbered sources for Part 2 in her notes.)

COMMENT:

It is assumed that Emory and Woodward Township Cemteries are the same, One just being an older name. The marker for Jessie B. (in WTC) is a small fragment and free standing stone.
This means it is NOT anchored to the ground and may be more of a memorial marker.

CHAPTER LII.

BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCHES.

BOROUGH OF JERSEY SHORE, AND PORTER, WATSON,
MIFFLIN (INCLUDING SALLADASBURG), AND PIATT
TOWNSHIPS.

JESSE B. CARPENTER, second son of John and Mary Carpenter, was born October 10, 1813, in Woodward township, Lycoming county. He was reared upon the old homestead, and received such an education as the common schools of that period afforded. After he grew to manhood he and his brother secured the patent for the tract entered by his grandfather, a portion of which is still owned by members of the family. In 1866 he purchased his present home of 125 acres in Piatt township, where he has since resided. Mr. Carpenter was married May 20, 1847, to Phebe Ann, daughter of Joseph and Hannah Carpenter of Eldred township. Four children are the fruits of this union: Joseph R.; William B., deceased; John W., and Asher M. Mr. Carpenter is one of the leading farmers of his township, and is a trustee and steward of the Methodist Episcopal church of his neighborhood. Throughout his life-long residence in Lycoming county he has been recognized as an industrious and honorable citizen, a man whose character is above reproach, and whose success has been attained by a conscientious performance of duty. He is a kind and charit-able neighbor, and ever ready to help the needy and afflicted. Politically, he has always been a stanch Democrat, and is also a firm advocate of the temperance cause. Both he and wife are now spending their declining years in the mutual love and respect of home and family, and in the enjoyment of the comforts which their industrious and economical habits have won.

219. Isaac Ernest "Ernest" Carpenter

NOTE: This Carpenter line updated by William Huisman via email GEDCOM in June 2012.

My Grandfather did not like his first name. He always went by his middlename "Ernest". On his grave stone he has it as "I. Ernest Carpenter". His nickname was Ernie. All his children called him "Poppie" even in their old age. No one ever called him Dad, Daddy, Father, etc. He loved his King Edward cigars and his beer. When I received my driver license, I got the honor of driving him to the taverns on Main Street in Anderson, Indiana. Being only 16, I would drop him off at one and he told me which one to pick him up at and at what time. I never got to drink a beer with him as he died before I was 21. I did try one of his cigars though (behind his back) and got sick. Ah, those were the days.

Ella Pearl Horton

My Grandmother died when I was young. I remember two things about her, staying over night once at her house and when she died. All her children called her "Mommie". Like Grandpa, no one called her anything else and they were known as "Mommie and Poppie".

ARTICLE: by Jesse Carpenter
Catherine - Part 1

The research into Catherine E. Carpenter cited by the 1850 Census began way-back in the year 2012... The time between the birth of the United States and up to the year 1850 about 75 years, researching into the ancestry of women during this period especially married woman, usually uncovered very little except maybe, if lucky, a biographical sketch from a secondary source. With the 1850 United States Census and thereafter, every ten years, all household members were recorded along with the head of household. The Census is considered the primary genealogical record of families in the United States. The dilemma while trying to uncover any of their ancestors within the first 30 years after 1850 would give the same results. The search would place the ancestors in the same time period before 1850 again uncovering very little. Forty years after 1850 would have given better results but research is further frustrated by not having the 1890 Census where many of the population schedules were badly damaged by fire in the Commerce Department Building in January 1921. The years 1850, 1860, 1870 and 1880 skipping 1890 to 1900 have limited the search yet despite these limitations, there are other methods that would broaden the search. The final task interweaving fragmented genealogy becomes open to argument distinguished as unworthy

graphic

The focus of this article is centered around the family of David Carpenter. The Carpenter lineage from James Carpenter was his son John and then his grandson David. David was born on 8 April 1809 approximately along the line joining Anthony and Woodward Townships of Lycoming County, Pennsylvania. He was the son of John Carpenter and Mary Campbell. He married Mare Ware (alternate spellings Wehr, Weir, ...) on 2 August 1832 in Jersey Shore, Lycoming, Pennsylvania. , , , She died 3 4 5 6 before 1836. David and Mary had a single child, a son, Jesse J. Carpenter who was born 19 May 1833. In 7 11 February 1836, David married Racheal Mitcheltree. She died 29 August 1880.

The name Catherine is easily seen listed in the 1850 Census of Porter Township. She was listed as the 8 daughter of David Carpenter and maybe the daughter of Rachael Mitcheltree. David married twice, first to Mary Ware and then to Rachael Mitcheltree. Why did David's first wife Mary die so soon into her marriage? One might conclude surely questionable yet plausible that Mary died while giving birth to a second child. It was not like she could be rushed to a hospital to give birth not until the first hospital in Williamsport opened in 1878. Natural birth at home was the normal event and it was often supported by the family. The father was helpless by the chaotic scene of his pregnant wife, screaming during labor, not being able to console her pains. Therefore the call went out without hesitation, ringing the bell if you will, for assistance that would summon the local midwives. Midwives provided assistance often requested to assist childbearing woman during pregnancy especially during labor and birth even assisting weeks after childbirth. Mary called for help but maybe, it was too late. Catherine born while mother died.

Rachael on the other hand, one might go as far to assume that she was rescued from a fate forever marked as a fallen woman. The term was often used in 1850. The public gossip often heard to shame women with children born out of wedlock (or worse, morally ruined as subjects of immoral men). Because David honored Rachael in marriage, whether or not who she once was, Rachael was an exemplary wife and good mother.

The early customs of Colonial America were carved out by the constant struggle to survive. The frontier families were guided by the hearthside discourse on the consequence of sin and the benefit of virtue. The Book was often used to instill the virtuous path. Temptations were avoided once common of the old ways of the public house. Their liberty was embraced in the patriarchal heart of men. Once commoners were now guardians of their own land. The ruthless trials were accepted for the sake of their beloved homes for its cradle within the protected realm of women. No one argued their given role or responsibility within the family unit. The consequences were all to clear in their daily lives.

Without evidence, the assumptive arguments such as these about Mary or Rachael in genealogy are undeserving to the living descendants. Nonetheless, assumptions are created maybe not intentionally but created from interpretations garnished from fragmented events. Over time, such false hypothesis clearly biased might be interpreted as truth. How could anyone argue otherwise for example when information is taken from family trees shared by others.

Many times these publicly copied trees are used as the starting point. For whatever reason, the original authors come and go and yet their original versions are copied and passed on to others.

This type of research is typical from internet genealogical warehouses. Although the family tree hints are mostly reliable, they are often used as a starting point in research. As such, starting points are necessary when searching for allied families which cannot be uncovered otherwise.

Although public family trees might convey someone else's information, they are initially created with information by those who know more about their own families than anyone else. This method is used to piece together copied family trees that branches into theirs like puzzle pieces.

A method that saves months if not years of research. It seems that many of the public trees from the internet genealogical warehouse agree that Catherine E. as cited from the 1850 Census is the biological daughter of the family of David Carpenter.

The histories of the Ware family and the Mitcheltree family goes far back to Colonial America.

Unfortunately, the research has been unsuccessful in uncovering the ancestors of either Mary

Ware or the ancestors of Rachael Mitcheltree. The point here without any hint of their ancestry, uncovering Catherine's past becomes much more difficult. Thus Mary, Rachael including Catherine are considered brick-walls because ancestral documents do not exist beyond brickwalls and sadly, these three brick-walls all exist in the family of David Carpenter.

Genealogical connections are important. They come from primary documents like the United States Census. These records are published every ten years and are often used for researching family trees. Beginning with the 1850 Census, the names and ages of everyone in the household were recorded. Before then, only the names of head of households were recorded from 1790 up to 1840. Although knowing the names of head of households are helpful, uncovering information for the family members before 1850 was impossible. For both Mary and Rachael, there were no ancestral connections to be found from these earlier documents.

An alternative for uncovering family connections are recorded as vital information kept in the family Bibles. Another was the published genealogical records often sold as subscriptions. Sadly, many of these documents are few in number and in most cases the family Bibles were rarely shared and often lost over time.

Without the Family Bible and other similar documents of genealogical connections, the other option is to try connecting bits and pieces together from the other pages of the United States Census. Searching through the 1850 Census in the surrounding townships listing for the same family names in question in the hope something might surface. This takes time and the work is tedious. The uncertainty might increase as the search moves away from Lycoming into the surrounding counties. In the most likelihood after hours of work there might be nothing of value worth using from such a search.

Such an argument made from tying together bits and pieces will most likely be considered unworthy, an assumptive conclusion biased at the author's will. At this point, the opinions of others are of little consequence. The author has decided to move forward risking his time and effort. The effort to publish in the hope a distant relative, or anyone with knowledge, reading the article from the internet might comment on the troubling subject.

In Catherine -Part 2, the author jumps directly into the mess of data...

Catherine - Part 2

The household of David Carpenter is listed in the Potter
Township Lycoming County

Pennsylvania Census dated 8 August 1850. Listed was David age 43 and his wife Rachael age 41.

The children listed were Catherine E. age 16, Priscilla J. age 14, John J. age 12, Joseph L. age 10, Levi T. age 8 and finally Elsie A. age 5. Catherine was listed as the oldest child, it has been assumed she was the child of David and Rachael. The number of children contradicts the 1883 record that David and Rachael only had five children. 1

David was born 8 April 1809 somewhere near the borderline between Anthony and Woodward Townships in Lycoming County Pennsylvania. In 1850 living in Potter Township, he was serving as the Constable, a peace officer of Potter Township.

Catherine was visiting the residence of David and Rachael Carpenter in 1850 most likely because her husband in all seriousness was searching for assistance for his pregnant wife hence why Catherine came in contact with Constable Carpenter. A child, a wife and maybe a daughter, Catherine was pregnant.

Catherine Ellen Mitcheltree was her full name who had the same maiden name as Rachael although for Rachael, it might be from a previous marriage. She may be related to the family but researching women during this period uncovered very little as previously mentioned in Part 1. Was Catherine there because she needed support from her family or was it because she needed experienced women, a safe environment, to help delivery her unborn child.

The household of Joseph Ritchey is listed in Chapman Township Clinton County Pennsylvania

Census dated 17 October 1850. Listed was Joseph age 25 and his wife Catherine age 19. The 2 children listed were Jane age 1 and David age 3 months. On the same page as Joseph is his father Edward the farmer and Edward's family. Joseph's older brother William was born one mile west of Ferney's run where he was actively engaged in lumbering operations, an implication that the homestead of the entire family was on and around Ferney's run. The Grugan township 3 was formed in 1851, and was taken from territory in Colebrook Township and Chapman Township. The township is divided into two nearly equal parts by the West Branch Susquehanna River. Therefore the Ritchey homestead sits along the Susquehanna river in Grugan Township. The 1860 Census for Joseph and Catherine exemplifies Grugan Township.<sup>4</sup>

The evidence shows that any person like Catherine could be at two locations while the census was taken. The two locations were the neighboring Clinton and Lycoming counties. Catherine and her husband traveled from Grugan Township to Potter Township looking for assistance. As indicated, township boundary lines often change during the early history of many counties in Pennsylvania. The map shows where the Ritchey family lived and most likely, the lumber maker Joseph took his wife on a river boat to avoid road travel or by railroad. If the railroad did not exist near Ferney's run then the remaining option was horse and buggy.<sup>5</sup>

The Chapman Township census was enumerated on 17 October 1850 approximately 3 months apart from the Porter Township Census. Interestingly the Chapman Township Census shows that her son David was born at the age of 3 months. Catherine gave birth to her son David at the home of David and Rachael Carpenter.

She was the daughter of John C. Mitcheltree and Mary Ann Hevner of Clinton County Pennsylvania. Catherine was born about 1832 in Clinton County. She married Joseph Ritchie about 1849 around the date when their first child was born.

The focus of this article is about the family of David Carpenter and by solving the mystery of Catherine might help to uncover other genealogies of Mary Ware and Rachael Mitcheltree. Searching through the family connections finally uncovered her younger brother George W. Mitcheltree which in turn uncovered their parents. The search started with the children of 6 David and Rachael. Luckily, this was the next child, Priscilla, listed under Catherine in the 1850 census. So using Ancestry's family trees and their images of their census records, the family connections to discovery was from Priscilla, to George, and then the parents. Catherine was listed as the older sister of George. Many in the 1850 census documents had the needed information for the search but anything before then was impossible. For example. in the 1840 census and before, the only name listed was the head of household.

George W. Mitcheltree married Priscilla Jane Carpenter daughter of David J. Carpenter and Rachael Mitcheltree about 1856. They had 13 children yet oddly the Mitcheltree family was not entered into the genealogical record of the Descendants of John and Elizabeth Campbell. The only surname Mitcheltree recorded under the family of David Carpenter was Priscilla's mother Rachael. Was this to protect known ties to other Mitcheltree families or to protect Rachael herself. The given name Priscilla on the other hand had both dismal and joyful significance for David Carpenter.

David was the Constable, a peace officer of Potter Township and maybe a good husband and father. He wanted to protect his family. David named his daughter after his sister, Priscilla Jane Carpenter. David's sister married John Pepperman and sadly many of their 12 children had died at an early age. On the other hand, the children of George and Priscilla went on to live into their 80 adulthood.

David was 2 years older than his sister. She was seventeen when she married John. David had experienced both the tragedy and sadness of his sister's life. Four years later after Priscilla and John married, David married his first wife in 1832. Mary Ware had one child, Jesse J. Carpenter who was born in 1833. Soon after the birth of Jesse, Mary died. Sad how Jesse never had the chance to know his mother and the consequential affect it had on David. In 1836, David remarried Rachael Mitcheltree in February of that same year. The events in one's life, although not obvious, can shape a person's constitution. David seemed to direct the entire family, and his wife Rachael most likely knew David as caring but hard. Catherine although mistakenly identified as his daughter, he took care of her whether she was family or stranger.

The family of David Carpenter is complicated and still difficult to untangle, yet with the one question unraveled as to who Catherine was, the other women in David's life, Mary and Rachael still remain a mystery.

An accident occurred near Glen Union last evening by which Joseph Ritchey and Lloyd Peck, employees of the railroad company were severely injured. The men were on a hand car together with an Italian laborer who was turning the crank. The Italian's dinner pail dropped over and was about to fall off the car when he reached for it and was struck on the head by the crank. He was knocked against Ritchey and Peck by the blow and they both fell off the car, the wheels of which passed over them. Dr. Hayes amputated one of Ritchey's arms near the elbow. Obituary transcript from the Lock Haven Express, September 14, 1908:

An Aged War Veteran Stricken on Saturday

G. W. Mitcheltree died in Williamsport in a Few Hours After Stroke

George W. Mitcheltree, of Williamsport, a brother-in-law of L. T. Carpenter of this city, died very suddenly Saturday evening at 8:30 o'clock in Williamsport. He had been in excellent health, apparently, and in the best of spirits when he was suddenly stricken between 2 and 3 o'clock in the afternoon by paralysis.

The stroke proved to be a fatal one. Mr. Mitcheltree never regaining consciousness.

The deceased was a Civil War veteran, having served in Co. C, Two Hundred and Seventh Penn's volunteers. He was aged 75 years, 4 months and 17 days. He leaves a wife and the following children: David P., Randolph, Miles, Edward, James and Cordie of Williamsport, Archie of Avis, Millard of McElhattan; Mrs. William Harmon of Loganton. He is also survived by five brothers and two sisters; Ross, Adam, Newton, Saul and John Mitcheltree. Adeline and Mrs. Annabelle Williams. The deceased was born near Whetham, Clinton county in 1833, and had been a resident of Williamsport nearly nine years.

The funeral services will be held at Pine Station Tuesday afternoon. The remains may be viewed at the late residence Tuesday between 9 and 10 a.m. Short services will be held at the house previous to leaving for Pine on the New Express.

~Cause of Death Stroke.

Georgw W. Mitcheltree enlisted as a private in Company C, 207 Regiment of the Pennsylvania Volunteer Infantry on August 11, 1864. He was honorably discharged on May 31, 1865. Prior to enlisting, George was a sound and healthy man, free from any chronic diseases. At one point he worked for Jacob Quiggle of Wayne Township, Clinton County, and Jacob said that he was one of his best men at making lumber. An affidavit by Eli Henninger stated that George also worked in the woods, in a stone quarry, and did farm work. His military record shows that he was 31 years of age at his enlistment. He was light complexioned, 5 feet 8 inches tall, and had black hair and blue eyes.

On December 14th or 15th, 1864, while stationed near Hancock Station, Virginia, he was detailed to guard cattle and compelled to lay out all night without proper clothing and shelter. As a result of the inclement weather and his exposure at that time, he took sick and laid in the field hospital for seven days. He was then removed to City Point, Virginia, for five days, and then to Lincoln Hospital in Washington, D.C., where he remained between four and five weeks. He was then returned to his regiment on March 11, 1865, but was unfit for duty. He was ranked a corporal at the time of his discharge and he never recovered from his illnesses. In March 1881, he was dropped from the pension rolls as not disabled in a pensionable degree from alleged bronchitis. Friends and distinguished citizens from the township came to his defense.

George's name is on a pillar in the middle of Linnwood Cemetery, McElhattan, Pennsylvania that was once one of the columns which enclosed the front porch of the old capitol building in Harrisburg, Dauphin County, Pennsylvania in 1820. The column was removed in June 1898 and erected in Linnwood Cemetery May 12, 1900 as a memorial to the soldiers of Wayne Township, Clinton County, Pennsylvania who served in various wars. The wars listed on the column are The War of 1865, War of the Great Rebellion, World War I, World War II, and The Gulf War. It lists the names of those soldiers from Wayne Township that fought in those wars.

CHAPTER XLVIII.

BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCHES.

Page 903 of 1365 pages. CITY OF WILLIAMSPORT AND BOROUGH OF SOUTH WILLIAMSPORT.

JOSEPH R. CARPENTER, of the firm of Carpenter Brothers Manufacturers of emery and corundum wheels, was born in Anthony township, Lycoming county, Pennsylvania, April 4, 1849. He is a son of Jesse B. and Phoebe (Carpenter) Carpenter of Piatt township, Lycoming county, and grandson of John Carpenter, a native of this county, and great-grandson of William Carpenter, who came from England during the Revolutionary war as a soldier in the army of Cornwallis, and subsequently settled in Lycoming county. The subject of this sketch was educated in the schools ,of Anthony township, where his father and grandfather lived, and subsequently took a course at the Montoursville Normal School. He followed agriculture until 1884, .and then engaged in the manufacture of emery wheels at Linden, under the firm name of Stone & Carpenter. At the end of two years Mr. Stone retired, and the present firm of Carpenter Brothers was organized. They moved their plant to Williamsport in 1891, and it is the only firm of the kind in this part of the State. Mr. ,Carpenter was married in 1873 to Emma

E., daughter of John McLaughlin of Piatt township, and has three children: Jessie V.; Mack B., and J. Craig. He is a Democrat, and is a member of the Methodist Episcopal church.

COMMENT AND WARNING:

The best documentation we have of the great grandfather of Joseph R. Carpenter-124532 is the name James with one mention of William as cited above. We assume William is a typo. But when you add the question about Patriot or Loyalist it appears more likely as bad genealogy. Combining the two names William and James into one composite is wrong and causes more confusion for those unaware. OR we have two different families regarding what the Y-DNA is telling us. JRC

John Alderson

Birth: 6 Apr 1852 Durham, Durham Unitary Authority, County Durham, England

Death: 28 May 1921 Clayton County, Iowa, USA

Burial: Ross Cemetery Clayton County, Iowa, USA

Memorial #: 16779695

Bio: Son of Thomas & Esther Mary (Sunter) Alderson-----

-----Strawberry Point, 28 May 1921 Another Pioneer Dies, Mr. John Alderson The citizens of Strawberry Point and vicinity were saddened last Saturday to learn of the death of a pioneer resident of Cox Creek Township. It was known that he had been quite sick during the winter, but of late he was feeling better and was able to be about and to Strawberry Point. His death ends the life of a worthy citizen and esteemed neighbor. As a husband and father he was honored and respected. As a citizen he took part in the civic doings of his township and county. He was active in promoting better farming conditions and was for a time president of the Strawberry Point

District Fair Association. He was also one of the faithful ones who looked carefully after the Cox Creek Cemetery. Genial, accommodating, active, industrious, deeply in earnest, he leaves a record that can always be pointed to with pride. Such men are worth a great deal to our country, and his worth will remain as long as memory lingers. Those who sorrow can be comforted in the thought that his life was well spent, and that the world was much better by his living in it. ~Obituary~ Mr. John Alderson At his home in Cox Creek Township, Clayton Co., Iowa, May 28, 1921, Mr. John Alderson, surrounded by his immediate family, passed away after a severe illness of several months. Mr. Alderson was the son of Thomas and Esther (Sunter) Alderson, and was born in South Church County, Durham, England April 6, 1852. In the same month, he with his parents emigrated to America and settled near New Philadelphia. Between the ages of 10 and 16 he worked in the coal mines. In 1869 they moved to Iowa and settled in Cox Creek Township where he grew to manhood. In 1880 he was united in marriage to Susannah (sic) Carpenter. To this union were born eight children. Seven of whom survive the father. One girl, Esther, died in infancy. For his kindness and disposition, Mr. Alderson was esteemed by all who knew him. His faithfulness as a husband and father endeared to him every member of the family. He was an honest man and an obliging neighbor. He leaves to mourn his wife and five sons: Ray and Miles of Strawberry Point, Merritt of Mederville, and Evertt and Ellsworth at home. Two daughters, Mrs. John (Elsie) Moyna, Strawberry Point, and Jessie at home. Eight grandchildren and one brother Fred, Mederville, and a host of friends and relatives. The funeral was held from the home Monday and was largely attended. Burial was in Cox Creek Cemetery in the family lot. Rev. N. C. Kirby, Pastor of the M. E. Church conducted the services. source: Clayton County Register/Journal, May 28, 1921

Frances Marion Dake

GRAVE: image

Frances Marion Dake Carpenter Stradley

Birth: 27 Nov 1913 Hastings, Adams County, Nebraska, USA

Death: 27 Mar 2004 (aged 90) Hebron, Thayer County, Nebraska, USA

Burial: Hubbell Cemetery, Hubbell, Republic County, Kansas, USA

Memorial #: 22466840

Bio: Frances was the sweetest lady I know. She loved to make rag rugs on a loom and play her piano. Every day Frances would get in her car and drive all over town, (Hubbell, NE 6 blocks long and 4 blocks wide), then she would go to the post office. She loved to ride out in the country and tell you about people who used to live out there 50-60 years ago. She talked about her father driving her in a wagon to Williams, NE so she could teach school. Frances loved little kids and would let them sit in her lap so they could "play" the piano. Frances used to call every Monday morning to check to see if you had any news for the paper. Frances we miss seeing you driving around town in your brown chevy with the dent in the fender to check on us. Frances M. Stradley, 90, daughter of Calvin C. and Lucy May (Ferguson), Dake was born Nov. 27, 1913, at Hastings. She died Saturday at the Blue Valley Lutheran Nursing Home, Hebron. Frances attended the Lowland Rural School and graduated from the Chester High School in 1931. She attended Peru Teachers College after which she taught rural school in Thayer County for three years. On May 27, 1934, she married Clinton M. Carpenter. To this union two sons were born, Lindon Clarence and Lester Wayne. They made their home in Osceola, Iowa. Mr. Carpenter died in 1943. On July 26, 1950, she married Harry Stradley. To this union one son was born, Carl Leroy. The married couple made their home in Hubbell. He died Feb. 14, 1996. Frances attended the Hubbell United Methodist Church and was church pianist for 40 years. She also enjoyed singing old hymns, helping friends, family and neighbors, making rag rugs and quilts and mowing the yard and teaching and playing the piano. Frances wrote the Hubbell News for the Chester, Hebron, Chester and Belleville papers for many years and also was a member of the Hubbell Board of Education. She was preceded in death by her parents; a son, Lester Carpenter in 1948, brothers, Adrian Dake in 1993 and Kenneth Dake in 1987; and her husbands, Clinton M. Carpenter and Harry Stradley, two granddaughters, one grandson, a step-daughter in-law and step son-in-law. She is survived by two sons, Lindon Carpenter and Carl Stradley, of Hubbell; step-daughter, Mrs. Virgil Werner, Hubbell, step-son, Leo Stradley, Whittier, Calif.; one sister, Martha Agee, Wheatridge, Colo., seven grandchildren; six great-grandchildren. Services will be 11:30 a.m., Saturday at the United Methodist Church, Chester. Pastors Eldon and Mary Beth Nicholson will officiate. Friends may call at the Bachelor-Faulkner-Dart-Surber Funeral Home, Belleville, Kan. from 9 a.m. until 9:30 p.m. Wednesday, Thursday and Friday. Interment will be in Hubbell Cemetery.

Obituary

Richelle Combs passed away peacefully at home on October 10, 2016 in Albany, OR at the age of 59 with loved ones at her side. She is survived by her daughter Makenna Combs, her mother Joan Carpenter, her sister Joni Funk and family, and her community of wonderful friends. Kathryn Julia Farmer O'Brien

Birth: Feb. 19, 1920

Strawberry Point

Clayton County

Iowa, USA

Death: Sep. 27, 2012

Guttenberg

Clayton County

Iowa, USA

Kathryn Julia O'Brien, 92, of Strawberry Point, Iowa, died Thursday, September 27, 2012, at the Guttenberg Care Center. She was born February 19, 1920, on the family farm, rural Strawberry Point. She was the eleventh and youngest child of Francis and Daisy (Carpenter) Farmer.

Kathryn walked to the rural school in the district through eighth grade and attended Strawberry Point High School her freshman year. She continued her education at Elkader High School, graduating in 1937, with a normal training teaching certificate. She was not old enough to teach the following year and opted to stay home to help care for her father, who was in a wheelchair as a result of a paralyzing stroke. She then taught rural school for three years. On September 13, 1941, she married John M. O'Brien at Sacred Heart Cox Creek Catholic Church, rural Strawberry Point. Four daughters were born to this union: Maureen Bergan (Bernard), Elkader; Karen Recker (Jerry), Lamont; Helen Harford Weber, Guttenberg; Mary O'Brien-Pritchard (Leslie), La Quinta, CA.

The O'Briens farmed their Century Farm north of Strawberry Point for 50 years. They were long-time members of Sacred Heart Catholic Church in Volga. Together they enjoyed dancing, playing cards and a surprise 40th anniversary trip to Ireland from their daughters. Kathryn was active in the neighborhood Victory Club, as well as entering local radio phone-in and creative writing contests. She represented Wallaces Farmer magazine in Northeast Iowa for 12 years, doing interviews and readership studies. She retired to Strawberry Point after the death of her husband where she was a member of St. Mary Catholic Church and several card clubs. She moved to the Tower Living Center in Garnavillo in 2004, where she resided until her recent transfer to the Guttenberg Care Center.

Survivors include her four daughters; 15 grandchildren: Jeanice Reimer (James), Sheila Bergan, Kevin Bergan (Amy), Patrick Bergan (Charlene), Terry Bergan, Erin Bloomquist (Todd), Ryan Bergan (Bobbie), Kathy Beevers (fiancé Troy Miller), Tim Recker (Kristy), Connie Euans (Mike), Lisa Recker, Larry O'Brien, Mike Harford (Sarah), Tony Harford (friend Amanda Schlueter), Susie Horn (Mark); 24 great-grandchildren; and five great-great grandchildren.

Preceding her in death were her husband in May 1991; grandsons, Jeffrey Recker (July 1979) and Steven Bergan (August 1989); grandson-in-law, Wally Beevers (November 2009); sons-in-law, William Harford (October 1979) and Robert Weber (March 2010); sisters, Mamie Miles, Maggie Kellogg, Daisy Kellogg, Nellie Olinger, Clara Farmer and Mae Berns; brothers, Bryan, Dewey, Edward and Francis, Jr.

Death: 12 Apr 2017 (aged 84)

Burial: Sandia Memory Gardens, Albuquerque, Bernalillo County, New Mexico, USA

Bio:

Rosemary Patten, our beloved wife, mother, home keeper and friend passed from this life on Wednesday, April 12, 2017, peacefully surrounded by her husband, daughter, granddaughter and great-granddaughter.

Born into a large family as the youngest sibling, she grew up on a two acre parcel of land in the north valley of Albuquerque.

Rosemary met the love of her life Billy Patten while working at a movie theater in the north valley of Albuquerque. Rosemary became the mother of five children and is survived by three children, Stephani, Terry and Cheryl. Rosemary and Bob have eight grandchildren and six great-grandchildren.

With exception of a few years living elsewhere, Rosemary called Albuquerque her home. Rosemary and Bob spent many years traveling in their RV, visiting all the lower 48, Canada and Alaska. Rosemary also volunteered for many years for Breast Cancer Awareness and the American Heart Association.

A memorial celebration service will be held on Saturday, April 22, 2017 at 12:00 p.m. at Daniels Family Funeral Services 7601 Wyoming Blvd NE. The interment of Rosemary will follow the service at Sandia Memory Gardens in north Albuquerque. In lieu of flowers, a charitable gift to the American Lung Association may be made in her name, would be greatly appreciated.
